

B: Report Narrative

- Briefly restate your original goals and objectives, as stated in your proposal. (If objectives have changed, describe the reason for the change and the revised objective.)

Project was mainly focused on issues of victims' identification and prevention of domestic violence and human trafficking, improving local, national and transnational cooperation in the field. Together with that project's goal was also activating local media, motivating and encouraging them to write more on various social issues, particularly domestic violence and human trafficking.

Number of local and national activities would be implemented:

- Training in cooperation with Migration Supervision Unit in Eastern Estonia. Dedicated for informing specialists dealing with target group (girls of 18-25 years old from small towns) providing them with up to date information on human trafficking and domestic violence and skills necessary for prevention of such crimes, victims' assistance and identification. Training will also stress need for cooperation and networking in this area;
- Meeting with the Ministry of Justice, that is responsible for implementation of National Action Plan against Violence;
- Media award for best published article on human trafficking published in Estonian newspaper. It will also include a kickoff seminar for journalists that will be organized together with the Ministry of Justice;
- Roundtable of National network of fighting human trafficking, that will bring together representatives of different Ministries and institutions.
- Informational materials designed to inform target groups and general population about the issue and available help and assistance.

- What progress have you made toward accomplishing these original goals? Please quantify. (If a goal or objective has not been met explain the reason why and steps you plan to take to address this.)

All planned activities took place as was planned within the project frame and significantly contributed to the achievement of all established goals. Additionally 1 more training was organized for the Police and Boarder Guard in Tallinn.

- State any internal or external factors that influenced the project/program, both positive and negative. Describe actions being taken to alleviate negative factors or to sustain positive factors.

Cooperation and support provided by PMI has proven to be an extremely positive influence on the activities implemented within the project.

On the other hand the passivity and lack of initiative among Estonian media, has created number of obstacles in carrying out the media award competition.

- Describe the population served or community reached during the grant period. Use numbers and demographics such as age, gender, geographic location and percentage of low- and moderate-income served. Feel free to include examples of individual successes, which can be used to illustrate the effects of the grant.

Around 100 people in total attended trainings, workshop, roundtable and other events organized within the project scope.

They were representing Police and Boarder Guard Board, Unemployment Board, Labour Inspectorate, Victim support and conciliation service, Ministry of Justice, Tartu University, Ministry of Social Affairs and Salvation Army and local media.

- What are your plans for sustaining this program or project?

Since 2004 LFT has been involved into number of activities directed at, prevention and fight against human trafficking, including gender aspects of the issue. All of the implemented activities connected to other projects implemented by LFT in order to ensure, that all the results and achievements could be implemented in future projects.

- Are any PMI employees involved in your program or with your organization? If yes, briefly describe the role they play.

None of the PMI employees are involved with our organization.

- Describe how your organization has communicated this project to the public. Include news clippings, releases, brochures, and other related material.
